TOWN TALK.

-That the Committee of the Saw-Buck ball did us too much honor through the Dispatch in intimating that we had presumed on their sanction for our notice upon said ball. We would respectfully suggest that our remarks are generally made on our own responsibility. without questioning the approval or disapproval of a parcel of boys.

-That a pleasure excursion will be given on the Steamer St. James, to Cincinnati, and Capt., has gained the good will and esteem of all who become acquainted Up with him. His mild manner of doing business, at the same time prompt and thoroughly effective, gave unusual satisfaction. He carries with him the best wishes of a host of friends for his future prospects.

We notice Capt. Sam Christy J. W. HANK has mounted the original "Old Porker," on the pilot house of the Belle, WHO has opened a fine general assortanent of and taken for his standard the unique motto "Root hog or die." We think however it will be some time before the Belle comes to the die, judging FANCY GOODS, GROCERIES, in the City, also will keep on hand a large from her trips this dull season.

The amount due from each. ds in itself small, and but a trifle taken separately, but the aggregate to us is of considerable importance. Now that we have sold out, we trust our friends will see the propriety of settling up these small balances promptly.

Among the certainties of fate DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS CAPS, the arrival of our favorite packet BOOTS SHOES, AND is the arrival of our favorite packet the steamer Ohio No. 3, at Gallipois. Any one wishing to travel on the Ohio with our friends Capt. Blagg and clerks Halliday and Donnally may depend on going through or time.

The fine passenger steamer Jonas Powelt is running regularly in the Gallipolis and Parkersburg trade from this port.

The Powell is a fast boat with first class accommodations, and as clever a Entirely New Goods crew as ever trod the decks of a steamer.

Capt. J. H. Summers and clerks Rice and Clarke will see passengers ther. and shippers satisfactorly accommodated. Try the Jonas.

On Tuesday last a stranger created considerable excitement on our streets, by a most beastly and disgusting exhibition of his gastro nomic powers. He swallowed twenty pebbles about the size of an almond, with as little apparent difficulty as an Jan. 25, 1866. Ostrich would, in performing the same feat.
